

TRIO OF INTERNATIONAL STAR MAZDA DRIVERS VISIT SICK KIDS IN TROIS-RIVIERES; ALEX ARDOIN TAKES THE RACING FOR KIDS PRIZE FOR THE QUEBEC RACE

TROIS-RIVIERES, QUEBEC. -- A Racing for Kids (RFK) sponsored children's hospital visit to CHRTR Foundation here, was truly an international affair as Star Mazda Drivers Peter

Dempsey of Ireland, Adam Christodoulou of England and Caio Lara of South America joined a contingent of French Canadian drivers from other Series racing in the Trois-Rivieres Grand Prix (Aug. 14-16) to visit sick kids at the Hospital. The Star Mazda drivers signed RFK 20th anniversary hats for young patients at the Hospital.

Louisiana's Alex Ardoin, the 2007 Star Mazda Racing for Kids Series' Award winner, took the RFK $500 prize for the Quebec race by passing pole sitter Rusty Miller on the final lap to capture his first win of the year in the Star Mazda series. Dempsey (Joliet, IL) and Christodoulou (Salt Lake City) won the other two Racing for Kids Star Mazda races to date with two more remaining in Atlanta and Laguna Seca. Racing for Kids offers a $500 donation to the local hospital and another $500 to the top finishing RFK Driver in each of the designated races.

Trois-Rivieres Grand Prix officials also organized a brief press conference during the hospital visit for area news media and Hospital officials including Nicole D. Gelin, Hospital Board President and president of Trois-Rivieres Ford Lincoln Mercury and Christine Lafond, CHRTR Foundation president and general director.

