

SPEED Latin America to Re-Broadcast Eight Star Mazda Championship Presented By Goodyear Races From The 2009 Season

P-Uno Motorsports TV, partnering the Star Mazda Championship presented by Goodyear in broadcasting the series to South American fans has announced that SPEED Latin America will re-run the eight races that were originally aired in November and December. The re-broadcast will begin on February 3.

"We're very pleased that SPEED Latin America will re-run the races," says Hector Cademartori who, along with Pedro Serramalera, are P-UNO Motorsports TV's principals which produced the races for the South American network. "Each race will be aired twice for a total of 16 shows. We think that it'll be a splendid warm-up (pun intended) for the upcoming 2010 season."

About Star Mazda Championship presented by Goodyear

For 2010, the Star Mazda Championship presented by Goodyear will feature an 11-weekend, 13-race schedule, most on major race weekends with American Le Mans and the Indy Racing League. Rising stars from around the world will compete for prizes valued at $1.5 million and benefit from two driver development programs, including the MAZDASPEED Motorsports Driver Development Ladder and the Indy Racing League's 'Road to Indy' program. Series alumni include Indy Car stars Marco Andretti, Graham Rahal and Raphael Matos, rising NASCAR drivers Michael McDowell, Scott Speed and Colin Braun and prototype racers Dane Cameron and Guy Cosmo. Drivers 16 and older are welcome to compete and the Star Mazda Championship also features Expert (30 to 44) and Master (45 and older) classes for more mature racers. The Star Mazda Championship features standing starts, wheel-to-wheel racing at 150 mph and budgets a fraction of other top open-wheel ladder series.
