

JDC MotorSports signs Dane Cameron

March 1, 2007 Lakeville, MN, - - JDC MotorSports announced today the signing of Dane Cameron to its Star Mazda Championship presented by Goodyear squad. Cameron of Sonoma, CA will contest the 2007 season alongside previously announced full season driver Nick Hays and partial season entrants Gerry Kraut and Noah Bystrom.

Cameron comes off a freshman year of professional racing which saw him dominate the Formula Palmer Audi Autumn Trophy in November as well as finish runner-up in the highly competitive Cooper F2000 Zetec Championship also taking Rookie of the Year honors as well. "We are definitely very excited about having Dane on our team for the 2007 championship," commented team co-owner John Church. "Dane was very quick in testing and should be a serious contender for the championship," added Church.

Cameron comes to the Star Mazda Championship presented by Goodyear series looking to add another championship to his resume. "Earning the Team USA Scholarship after a great season in F2000 and then going to Europe and winning a series over there was a fantastic experience in 2006," said Cameron. "I am extremely excited to be racing in the Star Mazda Championship with JDC MotorSports in 2007. After the first test with them I knew we would be challenging every weekend for race wins and the series title. I can't wait to get started at Sebring in just 2 weeks."

The team will continue testing at Buttonwillow and Road Atlanta prior to the Sebring season opener on March 16th.
