

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Contact: Eric McCombs (925) 998-8277

Standing Start Coach Dane Cameron Captures Star Mazda Championship

Sonoma, California. Standing Start driver coach Dane Cameron wrapped up the championship in the 2007 Star Mazda Championship presented by Goodyear with an eighth place finish at Road Atlanta during the 10th Anniversary of the Petit Le Mans to become the first rookie in series history to take the title.

"I'd like to congratulate Dane on winning the 2007 Star Mazda Championship," commented Standing Start General Manager and 2001 Star Mazda Series champion Scott Bradley. "I know he put a tremendous amount of effort into this year and it's great to see that effort pay off. Everybody at Standing Start is proud of the effort he put out and knows that he will continue to find success as he climbs the racing ladder."

Driving the #19 JDC Motorsports/Finlay Motorsports Pro Formula Mazda, Sonoma native Cameron captured the crown in dominating fashion, recording three victories, four additional podium finishes and five pole positions with one race remaining at Mazda Raceway Laguna Seca.

About Standing Start

Standing Start coaches do absolutely whatever it takes for you to improve your performance on and off the track. The coaches have many resources to use, have extensive training and experience to help take your program to the next level. They have many years of professional racing experience, coaching experience, but most of all a great enthusiasm for coaching. Standing Start coaches have a passion for motorsports and want to help drivers reach their goals.

