Placentia, CA – Goshen Motorsports and Global Tracking Communication, Inc. have signed a premier sponsorship extension deal for the 2009 Star Mazda Championship. Drivers Billy Goshen #82, Ryan Booth #83 and Joshua Goshen #04 in an ASA Speed Truck will display the Global Tracking Logo for the season. Kerry A. Holmes Vice President of Marketing for Goshen Motorsports. “We are pleased to have Global Tracking Communications signed on as a premier sponsor for another exciting season of racing throughout North America”.

Global Tracking Communications, a leader in GPS tracking hardware and software solutions has recently ignited the Star Mazda Championship and ASA Speed Truck Series by becoming an official 2009 sponsor behind the talented drivers at Goshen Motorsports. GTC’s hospitality program provides an unforgettable experience for customers to come and enjoy the world of professional racing. Guests receive a crash course in racing, full access to the hospitality tent, one on one interaction with the drivers, photo opportunities and a full day of exhilaration.

Both GTC and Goshen Motorsports are based out of Southern California, where together a strong relationship was built to support the Goshen Motorsports Team in 2008. GTC’s hardware and software solutions allow fleet owners and managers to easily access information to help them increase their assets performance, while decreasing unnecessary overhead costs. Since its inception, GTC has engineered numerous hardware and software developments that have represented significant technological advances for the GPS vehicle and asset tracking market.

Last year’s phenomenal performance by experienced driver Billy Goshen in the Star Mazda circuit excited all official sponsors, leaving everyone on the edge of their seats. The big news for 2009 is Goshen Motorsport’s newest drivers Ryan Booth and Toshihiro Deki in the Star Mazda Championship. Big performances and strong finishes will continue to be the main focus for the Goshen Team while heading into the beginning of the season on March 20, in Sebring Florida. Another addition to the Goshen team is the young and fearless Josh Goshen who will be participating in the ASA Speed Truck Series. The family at Goshen Motorsports is gearing up for an intense race season.

Global Tracking Communications’ CEO and owner John Stull is ecstatic about his continued partnership with Goshen Motorsports, “we’ve enjoyed sponsoring the TEAM over at Goshen Motorsports and seeing Billy’s success, this year will be pretty exciting with the new driver’s they’ve added. Last season, our company’s guests had a great day at the races and it’s a great program to continue with into 2009. It’s truly an unforgettable experience when you’re out there. ”
