Juncos Racing Team Owner, Ricardo Juncos, is excited to test Brazilian Guerra in the Star Mazda Series and looks forward to adding Guerra to his driver development program.

“I’m really looking forward to seeing what another young driver can bring to this series as we give him his first test in the Star Mazda car next week,” said Juncos. “Guerra has a lot of experience for his age and I am confident he will have no problem adjusting to the car. At Juncos Racing we are always looking for more opportunities to bring more drivers to the United States and to help build their career to the next level. Thank you to Guerra and his family for giving us the chance to test him with Juncos Racing.”

About Juncos Racing: Juncos Racing is based in Brownsburg, Indiana, U.S.A. just outside the “racing capital of the world,” Indianapolis, Indiana. In 1997 Ricardo Juncos, Team Owner, established Juncos Racing, a full-service Formula Racing Team, based in Buenos Aires, Argentina. For five years Juncos Racing competed in various National Championships throughout South America and eventually made their way to the United States, opening the doors in 2003 to their first karting shop based in Miami, Florida. During the next few years Juncos Racing captured 19 Local, Regional, and National karting Titles. Juncos Racing entered into the Star Mazda Championship presented by Goodyear in 2009 and claimed their first championship in the 2010 Star Mazda Championship with driver Connor Daly. 2012 will be the biggest year for Juncos Racing marking the third year in the Star Mazda series and entering their first year in the Firestone Indy Lights Series.
